MONTANA WRITING PROJECT ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR 1991 SUMMER INSTITUTE AT UM

MISSOULA --

The Montana Writing Project is accepting applications for its 1991 Summer Institute, set for June 24 through July 19 at The University of Montana.

The project is designed for educators committed to improving the teaching of writing at all levels and in all subjects. The application deadline is March 15, 1991.

During the four-week institute, educators learn writing strategies, participate in workshops and use microcomputers. At the end of the program, participants are qualified teacher-consultants of writing. They can share what they've learned by organizing writing workshops, developing curricula and assessing students' writing skills.

The cost of the institute is $800, usually paid by educators' school districts or funding agencies.

A 12-minute video about the Montana Writing Project is available. For applications, the video or more information, contact Beverly Chin, Montana Writing Project director, English department, The University of Montana, Missoula, MT 59812; 243-5231.
